

FIRST PEOPLES' CELEBRATION

SEPTEMBER 23, 2023

12PM – 4PM

On the grounds behind the Saxton House.
Boyhood home of "Fighting Bob" Lafollette.

VENDORS, FOOD & MORE!

Sponsored by ...

Historic Argyle & Argyle Public Library

SPEAKERS

1:00

Robert "Ernie" Boszhardt

"Ernie" is an archeologist who has worked in the Upper Mississippi Valley. His research has touched on nearly every aspect of the indigenous people of the Driftless Area, including "rock art".

His talk will include some of the geology of this area and some of the prehistory of these people and their artifacts.

2:30

Janice Rice

Janice Rice is a member of HoChunk Nation & is a retired librarian with a focus on American Indian resources, literature, culture, history, language preservation & revitalization.

She will be presenting a program called "Walk With Me Among My Homelands: Hear the Echoes of My Ancestors".

It covers culture, philosophy, teachings, values and land stewardship.